The 13th edition of the “gallery gugging special edition” series promises once again to be an unforgettable musical experience. When even Herbert Grönemeyer raves in the highest terms about the artistic uniqueness of a band and immediately signs them up for his own label – that’s a good sign. And he should be more than right with his assessment: Oehl are one of the most exciting new pop discoveries these days and are currently taking the German-speaking market by storm with their unmistakable sound and poetic miniatures.

Not averse to musical experiments either, singer and songwriter Ariel Oehl is putting together a fascinating formation especially for this unique performance in Gugging: with the Salzburg songwriter Tobias Pötzelsberger alias Tobi Elsberg, Ariel Oehl brings a top-class guest and a long-time (musical) “friend” on the stage of the Villa Gugging. Further surprises are possible.

Oehl & friends thus join a series of unique matinees and premieres that have been taking place in Gugging since 2017 as part of the “gallery gugging special edition”. Manuel Rubey & Gerald Votava, Mira Lu Kovacs, Klaus Maria Brandauer, Jana Irmert, Runar Magnusson, Voodoo Jürgens, Lubomyr Melnyk, Christopher Chaplin, Lou Asril, Lukas Laueremann, Kana, James Moore and Art Brut (band) have already provided magical moments.
